Whoever said that 'success should not be tampered with', apparently never wrote a book in his life! Well, I am proud to say that my dear former student and an IAS officer, Radhabinod Aribam did and how! After the success of his Public Administration part I, here he is taking his mission to its logical conclusion by coming out with an equally promising (and hopefully equally successful!) Public Administration Paper II – Indian Administration.

To say anything about the relevance of Public Administration in civil service examination now would be like stating the obvious. However, change is the only constant thing in this ephemeral world of ours and so it is with UPSC and the pattern of civil services examination. The present status of Public Administration can be best summed up by quoting Charles Dickens when he wrote that 'it was the best of times, it was the worst of times'. While on one hand sweeping changes in the pattern of questioning and less than kind marking in all optional papers including Public Administration has shaken the confidence of the most ardent of its advocates, on the other hand however, the indelible presence of a substantial portion of Public Administration in the four papers of GS has proved it beyond doubt that you can love it or hate it but you can never be indifferent towards it!

The present edition on Indian Administration presents the dynamic aspect of PA – the living, breathing, ever-changing, ever-challenging administration which is as complex, as elusive and as mind boggling as the realities of India itself. Indian administration, one can say, is the arena where the various theories and principles of PA wrestle, grapple and jostle with each other to prove their pertinence and justify their existence! I'm sure that Radhabinod has done an equally diligent and devoted job in revealing the complexities while retaining the simplicity of the subject in hand. I hope the present work will prove to be a fascinating, informative and enriching read for both students and casual but curious readers alike. My very best wishes to him and to all of you!
